UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEVADA

CONSTANCE BENTON, Special Administrator of the Estate of ROBERT BARCONIA, JR., deceased,

CASE NO: 2:23-cv-01034-GMN-BNW

Plaintiff(s),

v.

WALMART INC., a Delaware Corporation d/b/a
WALMART SUPERCENTER #3728; ROE
VENDOR CORPORATION; ROE SECURITY
COMPANY, DOES I-X and ROE
CORPORATIONS 11-X, inclusive,

FIRST AMENDED STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

Defendant(s).

The parties to this action, Plaintiff CONSTANCE BENTON, Defendant WALMART INC. d/b/a WALMART SUPERCENTER #3728 (“Walmart”), and Defendant BROSNAN RISK CONSULTANTS, LTD (“Brosnan”), by and through their respective attorneys of record, hereby stipulate and request that the Court enter a stipulated protective order pursuant as follows:

1. The Protective Order shall be entered pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

2. The Protective Order shall govern all materials deemed to be “Confidential Information.” Such Confidential Information shall include the following:

- a. Any and all documents referring or related to confidential and proprietary human resources or business information; financial records of the parties; compensation of Defendant’s current or former personnel; policies, procedures and/or training materials of Defendant and/or Defendant's organizational structure;

- b. Any documents from the personnel, medical or workers' compensation file of any current or former employee or contractor;
- c. Any documents relating to the medical and/or health information of Plaintiff or any of Defendant's current or former employees or contractors;
- d. Any portions of depositions (audio or video) where Confidential Information is disclosed or used as exhibits.

3. In the case of documents and the information contained therein, designation of Confidential Information produced shall be made by (1) identifying said documents as confidential in Defendant's FRCP 26(a) disclosures and any supplements made thereto; (2) placing the following legend on the face of the document and each page so designated "CONFIDENTIAL;" or (3) otherwise expressly identified as confidential via written correspondence. Both parties will use their best efforts to limit the number of documents designated Confidential.

4. Confidential Information shall be held in confidence by each qualified recipient to whom it is disclosed, shall be used only for purposes of this action, shall not be used for any business purpose, and shall not be disclosed to any person who is not a qualified recipient. All produced Confidential Information shall be carefully maintained so as to preclude access by persons who are not qualified recipients.

5. Qualified recipients shall include only the following:

- a. In-house counsel and law firms for each party and the secretarial, clerical and paralegal staff of each;
- b. Deposition notaries and staff;
- c. Persons other than legal counsel who have been retained or specially employed by a party as an expert witness for purposes of this lawsuit or to perform investigative work or fact research;
- d. Deponents during the course of their depositions or potential witnesses of this case; and

1 e. The parties to this litigation, their officers and professional employees.

2 6. Each counsel shall be responsible for providing notice of the Protective Order and
3 the terms therein to persons to whom they disclose “Confidential Information,” as defined by the 4 terms of the Protective Order.

5 Persons to whom confidential information is shown shall be informed of the terms of this
6 Order and advised that its breach may be punished or sanctioned as contempt of the Court. Such 7 deponents may be shown Confidential materials during their deposition but shall not be permitted to 8 keep copies of said Confidential materials nor any portion of the deposition transcript reflecting the 9 Confidential Information.

10 If either party objects to the claims that information should be deemed Confidential, that 11 party’s counsel shall inform opposing counsel in writing within thirty (30) days of receipt of the 12 Confidential materials that the information should not be so deemed, and the parties shall attempt
13 first to dispose of such disputes in good faith and on an informal basis. If the parties are unable to 14 resolve their dispute, they may present a motion to the Court objecting to such status. The 15 information shall continue to have Confidential status during the pendency of any such motion. The 16 party asserting the label of “Confidential” shall bear the burden of showing the same within said
17 motion to show why said document is entitled to such protection.

18 7. No copies of Confidential Information shall be made except by or on behalf of 19 attorneys of record, in-house counsel or the parties in this action. Any person making copies of such 20 information shall maintain all copies within their possession or the possession of those entitled to 21 access to such information under the Protective Order.

22 8. Any party that inadvertently discloses or produces in this action a document or 23 information that it considers privileged or otherwise protected from discovery, in whole or in part,
24 shall not be deemed to have waived any applicable privilege or protection by reason of such 25 disclosure or production if, within 14 days of discovering that such document or information has 26 been disclosed or produced, the producing party gives written notice to the receiving party
27 identifying the document or information in question, the asserted privileges or protection, and the 28 grounds there for, with a request that all copies of the document or information be returned or

1 destroyed. The receiving party shall return or destroy the inadvertently disclosed documents, upon
2 receipt of appropriately marked replacement documents.

3 9. The termination of this action shall not relieve the parties and persons obligated
4 hereunder from their responsibility to maintain the confidentiality of information designated
5 confidential pursuant to this Order.

6 10. Within thirty (30) days of the final adjudication or resolution of this Lawsuit, the 7 party receiving Confidential Information shall destroy said information, including all copies and 8 reproductions thereof.

9 11. Nothing in this Order shall be construed as an admission to the relevance,
10 authenticity, foundation or admissibility of any document, material, transcript or other information.

11 12. Nothing in the Protective Order shall be deemed to preclude any party from seeking 12 and obtaining, on an appropriate showing, a modification of this Order.
